

Bryan J. Blankfield
Executive Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary

Bryan J. Blankfield is Oshkosh Corporation's principal legal officer and a member of the executive management team. He serves as an advisor to the CEO, Board of Directors and other senior management members for all the Company's business units and reports directly to Charles L. Szews, President and Chief Executive Officer.

Blankfield also serves as a trustee of the Oshkosh Corporation Foundation and as Executive Vice President and Secretary of the Company's 65+ subsidiaries, including JLG Industries, Inc., McNeilus Companies, Inc. and Pierce Manufacturing Inc.

Blankfield joined Oshkosh Corporation in June 2002. He previously served as in-house legal counsel for Waste Management, Inc., an international waste services company, and its predecessors from 1990 to 2002. He was appointed Associate General Counsel and Assistant Secretary of Waste Management, Inc. in 1995 and Vice President in 1998. From 1987 to 1990, Blankfield was an associate with the Chicago law firm of Bell, Boyd & Lloyd.

Blankfield holds a bachelor's in business administration (accounting major) magna cum laude with departmental honors from Drake University, Des Moines, Iowa. He received his law degree from Northwestern University School of Law, Chicago, in 1987. Blankfield received his certified public accountant certification in 1983. He is admitted to the Illinois Bar and is registered as a Wisconsin In-House Counsel. He is a member of the Association of Corporate Counsel and the Society of Corporate Secretaries & Governance Professionals.