

Michael K. Rohrkaste
Executive Vice President, Chief Administration Officer

Michael Rohrkaste is Executive Vice President and Chief Administration Officer. He was appointed to this position in January 2010.

Rohrkaste has global strategic responsibility for the following functions: human resources, including talent acquisition and development, succession management, labor relations, compensation, and benefits; corporate marketing and communications; safety and workers compensation; aviation services; and team member travel. He also serves on the company's benefit plan and investment committees, and is a trustee of the Oshkosh Corporation Foundation.

Rohrkaste joined Oshkosh Corporation in 2003 as Vice President, Human Resources, with overall responsibility for human resources initiatives across the corporation and its subsidiaries. Rohrkaste has more than 25 years of extensive human resources and management experience in a variety of industries. Prior to joining Oshkosh, he spent nine years at Menasha Corporation, most recently as vice president of human resources for the corporation's largest subsidiary. Here, he had broad human resources responsibilities including chief spokesperson for labor contract negotiating. Before joining Menasha, Rohrkaste held various human resource management positions at Heller Financial (a diversified middle market commercial lender) and Unisys Corporation (a computer and services firm). He began his career at Miller Brewing Company where he held a number of human resources and field sales positions.

Rohrkaste holds a bachelor's degree in social science and a master's degree in labor and industrial relations from Michigan State University.
