

R. Scott Grennier biography

Senior Vice President and Treasurer

R. Scott Grennier is Senior Vice President and Treasurer, a position he was appointed to in February 2012. Mr. Grennier is responsible for Oshkosh's global treasury operations including banking and cash management, credit and collections, customer finance programs, risk management and international sales support. Most recently, he served as Vice President and Treasurer.

Prior to joining Oshkosh, Mr. Grennier spent 13 years at Johnson Controls, Inc. where he held several treasury positions and had responsibility for all treasury function in the Americas, along with managing the company's global relationships with all banks and investment firms.

Mr. Grennier holds a bachelor's degree from the University of Wisconsin – Whitewater and a master's degree from Marquette University, Milwaukee, Wis.